BEN BUTLER, he of bottled-up fame, told the temperance men of Massachusetts that he could not aid in getting up an opposition ticket against Washburn, but he thought they should.

BEN BUTLER was defeated in the Radical Convention for the nomination for Governor, and be now says, spitefully, Massachusetts can stand Washburn for one term, for it did once endure Boutwell for that length of time.

THE Washington Patriol says: A stranger to our institutions, and to the nature of our politics, would imagine, from a perusal of what the two Radical wings of New York | publishing it, and the unfairness of presentay about each other, that all the knaves of be country were collected in convention the other day at Syracuse, in that State. Such terms as "ruffian gang" and "corrupt office-holders" are scarcely fitting language wherewith brethren should address each other. Besides, the exposition of the secrets of the charnel-house of Radicalism in New York is not the choicest recommendation of the party to other communities. "Decency, Sir Peter, decency!"

MR. GREELEY says: "The country needs a more thorough awakening to the peril and mischief of tempting an Executive to wield and use official patronage for his own personal aggrandizement, and thus allowing the satellites of power to abuse their little brief anthority for their own profit under the guise of devotion to their chief."

Well, said Mr. Greeley. This is what we in our humble sphere, have been endeavoring to teach your party for a long time. We hope that Mr. Greeley, great and good as he is with his own people, will be more successful in bringing the Republican party to a sense of the importance of the truth be he has stated, than the Union and Ameri-CAN has been in its efforts to accomplish the same result.

THE BEATH STRUGGLE.

The Grant Radicals are making desperate efforts to carry elections in order to help Grant's chances for a renomination. Members of Congress have been sent all over the country, even to California. Creswell tried cated youth and the eager indiscretion of to fix up matters in Maryland, but succeded only indifferently. In efit us to divide the Democracy of the the meantime, it is reported from Federal officials that there is a prospect of a Demo-cratic Legislature in Obio, which will secure another United States Senator against the Administration. Again comes the demand for more money from the Departments, and a stricter accountability in the matter of going home to vote. In spite of all the Cabinet, the prospect in Obio is desperate.

The Secretary claims great credit debt since Gen. Grant came into power-a period of two years and six months-which | made, was largely cultivated in German s at the rate of a hundred millions a year. But by his own showing, the administration of Andrew Johnson paid off in four years two hundred and sixty-five millions, which would be at the rate of over sixty-five milmillions a year. True, Mr. Boutwell makes an insidious qualifying statement to exalt the administration of Gen. Grant over that of Mr. Johnson, that a portion of the minated against the intruder. The Germoney obtained by the Johnson government was from the sale of war material. We have no data to show what amount was resijzed by the sale of war material, but it could not have been comparatively a very rosive dye, called the decil's dye" for the mild arge sum. Then there was a vast amount | and harmless weed. The prohibition was of floating indebtedness discharged by the Johnson administration. The expenses of the government, too, were necessarily much greater than since Gen. Grant has been go was imperatively banished from the Em-President. Besides, Mr. Johnson had the pire. It was ordered to be confiscated and enormous corrupt jobs of a bitterly hostile Congress to meet, and was rendered utterly powerless to prevent them. He was badered and thwarted at every turn. Yet his were annually compelled to make solemn administration, which the Republican Congress and party repudiated and embarrassed, this devil's dye. In France, upon urgent accomplished more really in paying off the indebtedness of the Goveriment than Gen. On the last day of July, 1865, he says the ascertained publie debt was $2,755,985,275. This was It is noticeable, however, that the only when Mr. Johnson was in the Presidential effect of all this monstrous legislation was chair. On the first of March, 1869, when to make indigo more costly. It did not Mr. Johnson went out of office, the debt, as Mr. Boutwell shows, was $2,491,399,904.
